To Reflect His Character Clearly

"The truths of the Word of God meet man's great practical necessity the conversion of the soul through faith. These grand principles are not to be thought too pure and holy to be brought into the daily life. They are truths which reach to heaven and compass eternity, yet their vital influence is to be woven into human experience. They are to permeate all the great things and all the little things of life." Christ's Object Lessons p. 100
