Announcements

Pastor Dan Freedman

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray,
Take our hearts and minds far away
From the press of the world all around
To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love,
May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere
Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

To Reflect His Character Clearly

“When the ten lepers came to Jesus for healing, He bade them go and show themselves to the priest. On the way they were cleansed, but only one of them returned to give Him glory. The others went their way, forgetting Him who had made them whole. How many are still doing the same thing! The Lord works continually to benefit mankind. He is ever imparting His bounties. He raises up the sick from beds of languishing, He delivers men from peril which they do not see, He commissions heavenly angels to save them from calamity, to guard them from “the pestilence that walketh in darkness” and “the destruction that wasteth at noonday” (Ps. 91:6); but their hearts are unimpressed. He has given all the riches of heaven to redeem them, and yet they are unmindful of His great love. By their ingratitude they close their hearts against the grace of God.” Desire of Ages, page 348

SPIRITUAL REVIVAL AND RENEWAL The devotional emphasis for this week is directed to the church itself. We are pleased that God has laid upon the hearts of some in our church to be prayer warriors. But we want prayer to be more than a department of our church. We want everything we do to be bathed in prayer - from the church board, through the Sabbath Schools and each department that ministers to our children and youth. As this occurs at every level, our church will become truly empowered to reach out for the salvation of our families, our friends, and our communities. Devotional readings are also available to download at SabbathFellowship.NetAdventist.org.
